

SOUTHEASTERN ASSOCIATION OF FIRE CHIEFS

2001 RESOLUTIONS

Annual Conference – Nashville, Tennessee
July 9 thru July 12, 2001

Resolution 2001-1

Whereas,

This is the twentieth year that Dr. Ragan Vandegriff, III has served as the Chaplain of the Southeastern Association of Fire Chiefs; and

Whereas,

He has served in this capacity so unselfishly and in such an exemplary manner;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference of the SEAFCA, extend our appreciation to him for his outstanding service.

Resolution 2001-2

Whereas,

Robert Ezekial has contributed to the success of this Conference by facilitating the Strategic Planning Session; and

Whereas,

His leadership and guidance has enable the SEAFCA to complete a strategic plan,

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, extend their thanks and appreciation for a job well done.

Resolution 2001-3

Whereas,

The International Code Congress (ICC) and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) have each provided a process to consider and adopt codes that enhance fire safety in this nation and over the world; and

Whereas,

The codes resulting from each organization's effort have created a safer environment for our communities;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, express our appreciation to these organizations for their contributions in making this nation and our world a safer place in which to work and live.

Resolution 2001-4

Whereas,

James Lee Witt has recently served this nation as the Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency; and

Whereas,

He has tirelessly and unselfishly served in this capacity for the betterment of this nation and its people; and

Whereas,

As a result of his efforts, the fire and rescue services of this nation have improved their service delivery,

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, applaud and recognize him for his contributions as the Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

Resolution 2001-5

Whereas,

Deputy Chief William J. Curran, City of Nashville Fire Department, worked tirelessly to plan and organize this Annual Conference; and

Whereas,

His efforts have produced a most satisfactory, rewarding and enjoyable Conference;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, express their thanks and appreciation for his willing efforts in making this a most successful Conference

Resolution 2001-6

Whereas,

The Tennessee Fire Chiefs Association agreed to hold a 2001 Joint Conference with the Southeastern Association of Fire Chiefs in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas,

They were most cordial and cooperative in sharing programs, accommodations, etc.; and

Whereas,

A very successful Joint Conference was rewarding and beneficial to all attendees;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, extend their thanks and commend the Tennessee Fire Chiefs for their participation and cooperation.

Resolution 2001-7

Whereas,

The Nashville Fire Department was most gracious and accommodating as the host for this 2001 Joint Annual Conference; and

Whereas,

Their assistance and hospitality have made this a most enjoyable Conference;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, convey their appreciation for all of the extended courtesies enjoyed by the Conference participants

Resolution 2001-8

Whereas,

Chief James Mike Mock, Jr., of the Midway Fire Department, has served the Southeastern Association of Fire Chiefs as the State Director for South Carolina; and

Whereas,

He has graciously and diligently performed the duties of said office; and

Whereas,

This Association has benefited from the efforts of his service;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference convey their appreciation to him for his contributions in making the Association a more worthy organization for all members.

Resolution 2001-9

Whereas,

Chief Dale L. Clayton, of the Winfield District Volunteer Fire Department has served the Southeastern Association of Fire Chiefs as the State Director for West Virginia; and

Whereas,

He has willingly and unselfishly devoted his time and commitment to the performance of the duties of this office; and

Whereas,

This Association has improved due to his participation;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved,

The members of the SEAFCA, at this 73rd Annual Conference, do hereby commend him for his contribution in making this a greater Association.